The Inside Scoop at DeHaan Remodeling Specialists

Stunning BATHROOM REMODEL THRILLS!

PODOLSKY FAMILY

"I'm stunned," says Kellie Podolsky. "I can't believe we have a bathroom this nice."

AFTER:

Kellie and her husband Gabriel had moved into their 17-year-old, three-bedroom house on the west side of Kalamazoo before their son, who is now 6, was born. Through the years they'd been making some small changes to the house, but they had always wanted to redo the master bathroom. They longed for a larger shower, but they couldn't imagine how to make that happen, since the footprint of the bathroom was limited by a stairwell.

So, Kellie says, "we started Googling remodelers." That's how they found DeHaan Remodeling Specialists, Inc. Bob DeHaan and his team analyzed the home's layout and the family's desires and decided that an existing walk-in linen closet could offer more space for the remodeling project. By using this space, Kellie says, "we gained two feet without having to change the footprint."

One of the features that DeHaan Remodeling offered particularly appealed to Kellie and her husband: Decorator Mary Quinn could help them design their new bathroom. Quinn helped the couple choose tile for the floor and shower, quartz for the countertop, and lighting fixtures. The finished black, white and grey décor, as well as the somewhat unconventional bathroom chandelier, thrill the family.

The Podolskys' remodeling project took about six weeks and was completed "right on schedule," says Kellie. That time frame even included some extra tasks (typical of a DeHaan project), such as repainting a bedroom, hanging another chandelier, and installing extra insulation in the attic. There were no costly surprises (unlike on a typical episode from HGTV, says Kellie), and the family was continually updated on what was happening and what to expect next. Kellie and Gabriel vacated the master bedroom for the course of the project, but the team carefully cleaned up the room at the end of each workday anyway.

Delighted with the finished project, Kellie says she posted pictures on social media and now gets messages from friends who want to come to the Podolsky home to try out the new shower.

Kellie Podolsky says she strongly recommends DeHaan Remodeling Specialists to others, and that, when she and her husband are ready to update their other bathroom, they will definitely be calling DeHaan.
